

LITERARY TERMS!

By: Student Sample

Character

- A person, animal or imaginary creature that is part of the action of the story.
  - Elwyn Eden in Heart to Heart
  - Miss Kinnian in Flowers for Algernon
  - Charlie Gordon in Flowers for Algernon

Setting

- The time and place of the action in a literary work

- Library.
- Home.
- School.

Character Traits

- Clues about the looks, feelings, actions of a person, animal, or imaginary creature within a literary work

- Handsome
- Happy
- Exited

Plot

- The plan, design, storyline, or pattern of events in a work of fiction
  - Girl dies in car accident, heart gets donated, family and friends must cope with girl with donated heart because she starts to act like the girl who donated the heart.

Subplot

- A less important or minor storyline
- Elowyn died and her best friend started to date her ex-boyfriend.

Conflict

- The problem or struggle in a story that triggers the action.
  - Character vs. Self.
  - Character vs. Society.
  - Character vs. Character.

Problem

- The conflict of struggle that causes the action in a story
- Family trying to cope because their family member or friend has passed away, and now the girl with her donated heart is starting to act like her.

Climax

- The turning point of the story where the problem is at its worst and characters begin to solve it
  - The girl with Elwyn's donated heart begins to, for example, called Elwyns dad a special name that they only said to each other and only they knew about.

Resolution

- The part of the story that comes after the falling action and brings the story to a satisfactory end
- The family and friends accept Elowyn's death, build a memorial garden in the backyard, and cope with thinking Elowyn's still inside her heart donor, whom they have made close friends with.

